

Last update: 04/09/2020

Embassy of Italy in Warsaw- Consular Section
Pl. Dąbrowskiego 6, 00-055 Warszawa
Tel: 22 826 34 71
consolare.varsavia@esteri.it fax: 22 827 18 21

Declaration of Value for school certificates, high school diploma or academic degree

In order to obtain the Declaration of Value (Dichiarazione di Valore) of a elementary school's, gymnasium, high school or post-school education certificate/diploma you must present to the Embassy's Consular Section the following documentation:

1. Diploma/certificate with an "Apostille" stamp to be obtained from the Education Office responsible for the place where the diploma was issued [Warning! The new high school diplomas ("matura testowa") and the certificates issued for exams taken by external candidates have to be legalized by the President of the District's Examining Commission] – original and 2 copies;
2. Italian translation* made by a sworn translator, with an Apostille stamp issued by the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs - original and 2 copies;
3. Application form (available on the Embassy of Italy website or at the Consular Chancellery);
4. Copy of a valid ID document;
5. If the request is submitted by a third party, the latter has to be provided with a proxy;
6. Payment **;
7. Should you wish the Declaration of Value to be mailed, please provide one A4 envelope with stamps.

In order to obtain the Declaration of Value of an academic degree/diploma you must present to the Embassy's Consular Section the following documentation:

1. Diploma with an "Apostille" stamp to be obtained from the NAWA – National Agency for Academic Exchanges (or other competent office*) original and 2 copies;
2. Italian translation of said diploma made by a sworn translator, with an Apostille stamp issued by the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, original and 2 copies;
3. Appendix to the diploma/degree indicating the duration of studies and the evaluating scale in use at the time of the issue of the title [Warning! The appendix must be translated and apostilled if you wish to use it in Italy e.g. for academic enrollment purposes, for the recognition of the title, etc.] original and 2 copies;
4. Application form (available on the Embassy site or at the Consular Section);
5. Copy of a valid identity document;
6. If the request is submitted by a third party, the latter has to be provided with a proxy;
7. Payment **
8. Should you wish the Declaration of Value to be mailed, please provide one A4 envelope with stamps.

The Declaration of Value is issued within 14 days beginning from the date of submission of the complete request and the payment of the consular fee.

*Translations made in Italy do not need to be apostilled;

For study purposes, the Declaration of Value is issued free of charge. In this case, you must attach the documentation that proves the study purpose (e.g. provisional enrollment to the school/university; enrollment, school or university enrollment fee receipt and/or first tuition's installment). The Declaration of Value is not free of charge for work purposes. In this case a consular fee applies, to be paid in cash (current price 41 Eur to be paid in Zloty – for the exchange rate please consult the website www.ambvarsavia.esteri.it, section "Servizi consolari");

Current price of stamps for priority registered letter should be checked on the website of Polish Post <https://cennik.poczta-polska.pl/> or visiting the post office;

Last update: 04/09/2020

* In order to identify the competent office for the issuance of the Apostille you can visit the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs website <https://www.gov.pl/web/dyplomacja/chce-uzyskac-apostille> (also available in English <https://www.gov.pl/web/diplomacy/certification-of-documents>).